Joëlle Vanhamme, Ph.D, is Professor of Marketing at EDHEC Business School and EMBA Academic Director. Prior to joining EDHEC, Professor Vanhamme was faculty member at Rotterdam School of Management and IESEG School of Management. She received her doctorate from the Catholic University of Louvain (Louvain School of Management, 2002) and her accreditation to supervise research (French habilitation qualification, 2012) from the University of Bourgogne. Between 2011 and 2018 Joëlle Vanhamme was the Editor of the Journal of Business Ethics's section on corporate social responsibility (quantitative issues), one of the FT50 journal list. Her research has appeared in top-ranking journals such as the California Management Review, International Journal of Research in Marketing, Journal of Business Ethics, Journal of Retailing, Marketing Letters, and Organization Studies. One of Joëlle Vanhamme's core research streams focusses on sustainable marketing and corporate social responsibility (e.g., influence of corporate social responsibility communication on consumers; how to promote more responsible consumers' behaviours such as healthy eating or sustainable behaviours; how to curb product obsolescence)
